

CRD Evacuation Order Alexis Creek to West Fraser Road #4

EVACUATION ORDER AREA UPDATED – TZENZAICUT LAKE AREA

Saturday, 22 July 2017 7:05 AM

Pursuant to the BC Emergency Program Act, an Evacuation Order issued by the Cariboo Regional District has been updated, to downgrade a portion of the area to an Evacuation Alert.

Due to immediate danger to life safety due to fire, members of the RCMP or other groups will be enforcing this action.

The new Evacuation Order area includes the areas from the previous Alexis Creek to West Fraser Order #3, with the exception of the following area which has been downgraded to an Alert:

North of Roddie Road West 55 km; South 28 km and East 42 km; South paralleling Garner Road to South of 100C FSR; North side of Coulthard Road to the south side of Soap Lake; North East to South end of Miller Road; East to Fraser River.

This Order reduces the area of the Alexis Creek to West Fraser Road Evacuation Order #3.

Please see attached map to see the area that has been downgraded to an Evacuation Alert and which areas remain on Evacuation Order.
