Whereas the Governments of British Columbia and Canada are in the process of negotiating treaties with First Nations in British Columbia;

AND

Whereas these treaty negotiations are being conducted in secret and are not public, open and transparent;

AND

Whereas private third parties have not been consulted, nor have their interests been represented or properly considered;

NOW THEREFORE the following affected ranchers recommend that the treaty negotiators and the Governments of British Columbia and Canada commit to:

- (a) increased openness and transparency in all treaty negotiations;
- (b) timely, meaningful consultation with all affected third parties;
- (c) minimize the impact of treaty negotiations and treaties on third party interests, including but not limited to water rights and all tenures on Crown land; and
- (d) fully and fairly compensate third parties whose interests are impaired in any way at full market value.
